

EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES RISK MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

Starr Companies has partnered with Jackson Lewis P.C. to provide Employment Practices Liability insureds with a comprehensive risk management program to help mitigate and reduce employment claims.

Insureds can access the following risk management products and services from Jackson Lewis:

- EPL Help Line 866-758-6874: Receive up to one hour of no-cost consultation with a Jackson Lewis attorney who specializes in employment law. Calls will be routed to a local office.
- Employment practices checklists to help you to develop workplace law policies and procedures and to guide personnel actions.
- Mini-Webinars discussing a variety of employment issues, including:
 - Avoiding harassment and discrimination
 - Compliance with the FMLA and Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)
 - Avoiding claims of retaliation and wrongful termination
 - Enhancing wage and hour compliance
 - Managing substance abuse issues in the workplace
 - Other workplace challenges
- Employment Practices Liability Blog written by employment law experts covering real-life scenarios. Articles are delivered electronically to your insured's human resources personnel and other designated managers. To subscribe, visit eplriskmitigation.com.
- Interactive, online training for Human Resources or operation managers (up to 50 minutes per session, up to two sessions per year).
- Complimentary attendance at any sponsored breakfast series across the country. To locate nearby sessions and to register for webinars and other events at no charge, visit jacksonlewis.com/events.
- Receive electronic updates about workplace law developments and access "Preventive Strategies," a quarterly newsletter. To subscribe, visit jacksonlewis.com and click on Subscribe in the upper right of the page.
